Who we are

Counseling and Test Preparation (CTP Inc.) is an educational program in Addis Ababa founded by Columbia University students in 2014. As high school students applying to U.S. institutions from Ethiopia, the founders of CTP faced several challenges while completing their college applications. Lack of SAT preparation materials, unreliable SAT preparation programs, and most importantly, the absence of assigned high school counselors made their experience unbearable. Therefore, determined to significantly improve the experiences of high-schoolers applying to U.S. institutions from Ethiopia, CTP was formed as a subgroup of the Ethiopian and Eritrean Students Association (EESA). Since then, CTP Inc. became a recognized non-profit organization with legal grounds in NYC.

The Position

CTP is looking for self-motivated, dedicated, and passionate individuals to fill the role of Lead Instructor for the summer of 2019, from June 24 to July 31. As an Instructor, you will work with the CTP NYC team in Addis Ababa, for a period of five weeks, to deliver lectures about the SAT, the application process, and share your personal experience applying to colleges. This is a volunteer opportunity for those who plan to spend their summer giving back to their fellow high schoolers while surrounding themselves with great people and great vibes.

Responsibilities

- Meet with coordinators every week to prepare materials, discuss lesson plans, and discuss student progress.
- Be available at least two to three times a week to deliver lectures
- Assign and grade homeworks
- Proctor diagnostic and practice exams
- Help out in tasks and events as need be

Requirements

- Have recently been accepted or are currently enrolled in a college abroad
- Passionate about teaching
- Available this summer from June 24 to July 31

Perks

- CTP sponsored outings
- Access to CTP's network
- Resume boost!
- Welcoming, supportive, and fun environment
